Sunday 26th July 2015

A prayer for those going for an interview or a new challenge or .....

God, I'm about to face a challenging interview for a new job. First, thank you for this opportunity. Thank you that you care about providing for my needs, and fitting me in the right employment situation is something you yourself are working to complete. I know I have you on my side in this matter. You are looking out for my best interest and I know you have a perfect job fit for me. If this is that perfect fit, then make it perfectly clear to me and to those who are making the hiring decision. Begin now to prepare the time and place where we will meet. Set the tone in the room. I know that first impressions matter a great deal, so help me to be the natural "me" that you have created, so that they can see through my nervousness and anxiety to the person you have created me to be. Give me a peaceful and sharp mind. Bring to my memory all the knowledge and wisdom that is already there. Let your joy and contentment flow out through my words. And whatever the result, let this process be a blessing to those who review my case, and also to me and my family along the way. I trust you to work in and through this interview process. I trust you to provide for all my needs. And if this is your perfect fit, then let nothing stand in the way. If it is not right, then close the door and lead me quickly to the right next step. In your name I bless those who will be conducting this interview. Give them wisdom, peace and rest as well. I receive now, ahead of time, your promise – "I will never leave you or forsake you!" I believe this and oh, do I need it. I don't go into this interview alone. You are with me. And with that confidence, I am at peace. Help me now to feel that peace.

The Big Collection: Kay & I will be doing a Car Boot sale in early August as part of our contribution towards this years SA Big Collection for People in Need. We have some stuff to sell, but could do with more. If you have stuff that you are throwing out, we could try to sell them & take them to a Charity Shop for you if we are unsuccessful – win, win for everyone!!

Saturday 3rd October at Minchinhampton Baptist Church
Sunday 4th October at Staple Hill Salvation Army

We now have 50 members of our Fellowship who have signed up for the Retreat. Colin, Nicola & I have set our sights on 100 people attending!

I encourage you to please sign-up to the Retreat and join us on this very special weekend.

Advance Notice

OUR FELLOWSHIP

There will always be those in our Fellowship who need our prayers for all sorts of reasons. Not everybody wants those requests published or made public.

But you will be aware of someone and their very personal needs.

During July & August, when we may not see everyone every week as they are at Music School or Junior Camp or on holiday or visiting family or maybe working.

So lets remember and contact those who we know need our prayers and support

I'm pleased to announce for the final time, the Wedding of Miss Perri Stokes to Mr Jonathan Hall on Saturday 1st August 2015 at 12.30pm at All Saints Church, Martock. May God bless you as you start your new life together.

It was great to see "The Margarets" last Sunday: Margaret Hatton at Worship last Sunday morning
 Margaret Bessex at Page Park Praise

Congratulations to Arnold Tilling on reaching a milestone birthday, a feat achieved by a number of you this year. 80 must be the new .....

The Open Songster & Band Practices have been great times of fellowship for both the regular members and those who came along to sing, play or listen.

Really good to see Dave Noakes at Band Practice.

How did he get there? Colin went to pick him up.

Sometimes that's all it takes to get people to come to our Hall.
