Sunday 2nd October 2016 Edition 150

During the last week, Les & Jenny Palfreman visited, amongst other places, Birmingham Cathedral. It contained 4 stunning stained glass windows depicting the Nativity, the Crucifixion, the Ascension and the Last Judgement. Created by Edward Burne-Jones in the late 19th Century it is said they contain some of his finest work. Amongst the literature on display in the Cathedral was a leaflet about prayer. It quotes words of the Archbishops of Canterbury and York:

"At the heart of our prayers will be words that Jesus himself taught us - 'Thy kingdom come, thy will be done.' It is impossible to overstate the life-transforming power of the Lord's Prayer. It is a prayer that is reassuring enough to be on the lips of the dying and yet dangerous enough to be banned in cinemas. It is famous enough to be spoken each day by billions in hundreds of languages and yet intimate enough to draw us ever closer into friendship with Jesus Christ. It is simple enough to sustain a whole lifetime of prayer. When we pray it with sincerity and with joy, there is no imagining the new ways in which God can use us to his glory"

EDITORS APPOLOGY: In a rush, I failed to notice that last Monday was the last Monday of the month & that C.A.M.E.O would meet. I'm sure those of you who attend regularly enjoyed making pictures in frames. But I am sorry everyone else weren't reminded of the opportunity to Come And Meet Each Other still, there will be the last Monday this month!

EVENTS BULLETIN:

Divisional Event at the Staple Hill on Saturday 8th October at 7pm.

An Introduction to the Salvation Army on Sunday afternoon 9th October at 2.30pm. Anyone is welcome to attend. No booking. No tickets. Just come along and find out more about what we are about and ask questions.

Harvest Weekend 15th & 16th October

Saturday at 7pm. An Aussie Themed Quiz & Social Evening

You can get your tickets today from Beryl Gardner, Jen Palfreman or Viv Wallington. Next Sunday will be your last opportunity, assuming tickets are still available. The purpose of the evening is to enjoy each other's company, make new friends and be entertained with Aussie food, music, video and the quiz. We plan to have 12 teams of around 8 members. Most of the questions are not difficult. You will be surprised how much you, or members of your team, will know. Each of the teams will be named after Aussie wildlife and our artist in residence, Bob Perkins has done some fantastic wildlife paintings to represent each team name. These will be displayed in the foyer next week for your enjoyment. Profits from the evening will be added to the Harvest giving and go directly towards mission and outreach (see below). Finally, we hope that you will enter into the spirit of this fun evening and come dressed as for a barbecue.

Final teaser question: Are there camels in Australia? If so how many?

Harvest Sunday Worship 11am & Worship & the Word 5pm

Please bring some non-perishable items (with long expiry dates) listed last week so that we can harvest produce for those in need of food.

Special Harvest envelopes are available for everyone and there will be an opportunity to place the envelope onto the Altar Table within each of our services. These funds are reserved for one purpose only – Mission and Outreach, mostly for our own work but some to support work in the region.

We reached our target of £6,600 – Thank You & Well Done!

From Mark Hatcliffe: "Thank you to all who contributed books and visited the Coffee Morning on 23rd September. The Book Sale has raised £95 so far and it has been left in the foyer during this weeks activities. In addition to Coffee Morning, Margaret and Myriam undertook a Children's Craft Morning and some very good 'reach out' contacts were made".

FELLOWSHIP BULLETIN:

Remember Me will return in full next week. However, the following is from Colin after a week or so of visits & conversations

Gwen Lear had emergency surgery on Monday night, following which she spent several days in the Intensive Care Unit at Southmead Hospital. Catherine Read is making good progress, although it is slow progress for Ruth Cable who is still in Southmead. We pray for them a speedy and full recovery. Do continue to remember Joan & David Jones & Paul Campbells brother-in-law & Catherine Reads nephew Peter Clark.

It is sad to say good-bye to friends who have been journeying with us, but Hazel and David Leonard, for practical reasons, have decided to move to a church closer to home. They are staying in contact and we hope to see them time to time – our prayers are with them. Following the summer, Haydn & Trudi Brown along with Hannah and Katie have decided, as family, not to return to us. We are sad that they have made this decision, but our prayers are with them too and we hope that they will soon find a new spiritual home.

What would we do without grandparents? Currently Marcus and Cath Brown are undertaking grandparent duties, which means them staying away at their daughters house for most of the week. We miss them, but hope that they are enjoying the quality time with their grandchildren.
