Weekly Bulletin for Sunday 10th December 2017

What can I give Him, poor as I am?
 If I were a shepherd, I would bring a lamb,
 If I were a wise man, I would do my part,
 Yet what I can I give Him, Give my heart.
 (A Christmas Carol also known as "In the bleak Midwinter")

Internal Christmas Post: Last Post today!

Further to the front page of the Weekly Bulletin a couple of weeks ago, the influence of the Staple Hill Christmas Angel continues to grow. Via our website, we received an e mail from what turns out to be a 10 year old boy called Julius. He was interested to find out more about our gift appeal & how he could help. The result is that his rugby club are to donate over 50 presents! Although we were not mentioned by name, his story featured on the TV on Points West – now there are over 80 gifts!!

We need help tonight following the Family Carol Service once all our guests have left, to move all the gifts into the Bradbury Hall ready for Monday evening. (Also to prepare the Hall ready for Frank Mills Funeral).

We need help on Monday 11th December at 9am to collect the food for the parcels from Tesco – please see Colin if you can help.

We need help on Monday 11th December at 7pm to prepare the food parcels & sort the many toys that have been donated. It would be great to see as many of you as possible. There might even be coffee & mince pies!!

Colin needs a circular saw in preparation for next weeks Carol Service! (I think it's making items in advance of the service). See Colin if you can help.

December at the Staple Hill Salvation Army continues to be a "Journey to Bethlehem".

Still time to join us for as much of the remainder of the journey

There's the Family Carol Service tonight & at the Carol Service on Sunday 17th December, both at 5pm – bring your family & friends!

Don't forget we will be meeting out in the Square for Carols on Christmas Eve at 4pm.

And then we all meet together to celebrate the birth of Jesus on Christmas Day at 11am.

Please use this journey and the various opportunities to invite those whom you meet.
