The Weekly Bulletin for Sunday 12th May 2019

The next couple of weeks gives us the opportunity to both plan God's Mission through us at Staple Hill but also to put it into practice. See inside for the various Group Meetings over the next week or so, but we also have 2 great events in Page Park Praise & the Spring Celebration when we have the opportunity to reach and share Gods love with our family, friends , neighbours and the people of Staple Hill, some people we have yet to meet.

Get involved to Reach Up to Love Jesus, to Reach Out to Share Jesus, to Reach Deeper to Follow Jesus & to Reach Wider to Love Each other.

SPRING CELEBRATION BULLETIN: Saturday 18th May: 7pm

Next Saturday evening we will be welcoming two very special guests to Staple Hill; David Daws (Euphonium), former principal cornet player of the International Staff Band, who has since established himself as a world-renowned Euphonium soloist, and Naomi Blowers (Vocal), a local Salvationist who is part of our Divisional Youth Chorus. Both are sure to entertain, thrill & bless us with their music. Our Band will also be taking part to provide you with a varied evening of music that you simply won't want to miss! Get your tickets from Chris Painter or Nathan James, priced at just £5!

David Daws began to play the cornet at the age of 3 first playing in the Junior Band in Wealdstone Salvation Army. David has played in various Salvation Army bands and fondly remembers his time spent with Enfield Citadel Band. David joined the International Staff Band and was a member for almost 20 years. In 2005 David suffered a torn lip muscle and it was very quickly evident that the problem was serious.

Following operations in Canada and the USA, David has been left with permanent scar tissue on the top lip, where the cornet mouthpiece sits, making it impossible to play the cornet. In August 2012, David commenced playing the euphonium and he is a member of the Regent Hall band of the Salvation Army.

Naomi Blowers is 17 years old and is studying A levels. Naomi has grown up with singing being a part of her natural everyday life, and from the young age of 10 Naomi has been performing and delighting audiences with her vocal talent and has recently achieved a distinction in her Grade 7 ABRSM Singing exam. Naomi is a fully active member of Bristol Easton Salvation Army where she thrives on using her vocal skills to aid the sharing of her faith with others. Naomi is working hard to achieve a place at the Royal Birmingham Conservatoire in September 2020 to commence an Honours Degree in Vocal Studies to enable her to pursue her dream of being a Music Therapist specialising in Dementia Care.

Additional Band Concerts in May:

During May there are a couple of other opportunities for you to listen to the Band & invite your family, friends & neighbours: one in our local neighbourhood & one by the sea (well partly!) – more information next week.
