Ambassadors

'We are therefore Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us.' 2 Cor 5:20

In the Salvation Army, we talk a lot about being ambassadors for Christ, and various intakes into the Salvation Army Training College have borne the 'ambassadors' aplet. It is also the title of a great festival march for the band. It seems important to us, somehow, to be seen to occupy that role within our society – more so, perhaps, than for any other churches or denominations.

Is that a good thing? Instinctively, we would say 'yes'. But with the title comes responsibilities that cannot be shirked. We are answerable to Christ to do and to say the right things, to be the medium through which Christ can make his appeal direct to those we meet. It isn't going to be easy, but it should be a great honour to be viewed in this way – something to aspire to and to live up to.

The question is .... are we truly ready to be ambassadors for Christ in the world of today?

FELLOWSHIP BULLETIN:

You will be sad to learn that Ruby James was promoted to glory this week. Ruby was a lovely, gracious lady and one of the saints of the corps – she was also No 1 on our soldiers' roll. Our thoughts and prayers are with Kelvin and the family.

There are a number of people in our fellowship who are poorly, so please remember them in your prayers. In particular please pray for Ken, Marc's dad, who is far from well and David Banfield. We pray that you will give them and their families courage and strength over these coming days. In Joshua 1:9 we read, 'Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go.'

As I mentioned in the bulletin a couple weeks ago, we have been trying to find ways of enabling those without the internet to be able to share in worship. We have since acquired a couple of 'tablets' on which we can upload the meetings. These have enabled some in our fellowship to join us in worship. Please contact me (Colin) if this might be useful to you. Also, if you can help in the practical delivering, collecting, etc., of the tablets then also please contact me.
