Today, we celebrate harvest

Harvest is a unique festival in the Christian Church as it isn't celebrated on any particular date, but instead aligns (approximately) with the local farming calendar. It is also unique in that it is predominantly an outward facing festival, rather than focussed on set biblical events. And that makes harvest very special, indeed – a day not to be missed!

Today, we celebrate harvest

We give thanks to God for the gifts of food, of water and for the beauty of His creation. We give thanks for the changing seasons, His continued providential care, and for those entrusted to work the land. But we also are given the opportunity for think of those who are less fortunate than ourselves, who struggle to find enough to eat each day, for those living in poverty. And we look at our mission, and the call to 'sow the seed' of God's word and make a 'harvest of souls' for His Kingdom.

Today we celebrate harvest

*Now thank we all our God
With hearts and hands and voices.*

FLOWERS:

Our thanks to Morag and Linda for providing the flowers today on our altar table. They are in memory of Maureen's birthday.

PEOPLE:

Our thoughts and prayers continue to be with those who have been bereaved. We have a number of families who are preparing for funerals, Julie who was bereaved of her brother, Hilary who was bereaved of her sister, and Pauline, Beth and Carolyn who were bereaved of husband and father. I have had an opportunity to visit all of our friends this week, and I know that they are grateful for all the messages of support they have received. The funeral for Clive will be at Westerleigh Crematorium at 11.30am on Tuesday, 18th October, followed by a service of celebration at the hall.

As of writing, the only person I am aware of who is in hospital is Pearl. Please continue to pray for Pearl and those members of our fellowship who are unwell.

[Ed.] Colin is celebrating his birthday today- we hope you have a great day!

HOW DO I GIVE REGULARLY?

It was great to see Les receive his commission as the Assistant Corps Treasurer last week, we thank him and Gary (Corps Treasurer) for all they do each week. Giving is part of our worship, the Bible teaches us to give sacrificially and it's vital each of us prayerfully considers this. So here's a few things to think about:

- When was the last time you thought about increasing your regular giving?
- It's possible to set up a standing order for Sunday giving which makes it easier for you (and us!)
- It's possible to set up a standing order which also includes subscriptions to sections (e.g. Band, Songsters) - or you can add these to an existing SO
- For parents of children or youth, please support Children's Church or Youth Group by adding this to your standing order
- It is also possible to add a specific donation to your standing order e.g. for Messy Church or supporting the Young People – or anything you like!
- If you are able to Gift Aid your offering, please let us know, so that we can claim this at no extra cost to you or us.

If you don't yet give regularly then there are a few ways to do that:

- Set up a monthly standing order (easier for you and us!)
- Give a weekly or monthly envelope during the Sunday Collection
- Give freely in the offering basket
